

PUNK ZINE PROJECT MONDAY, OCTOBER 2012

feat.

DANIELA CAPISTRANO

MIMI THI NGUYEN

CRISTY C. ROAD

OSIA ATOE

JULIA B.

ANNA VO

PANEL DISCUSSION

"Beyond Meet Me At the Race Riot"
Unit One Allen Hall South Rec Room
1105 W. Gregory Dr. 4:00 PM-5:30 PM

"Beyond Meet Me At the Race Riot" includes an impressive line-up of panelists who offer through their zines a chronology and a partial history of the creative and intellectual production of people of color. In recent years, punk and riot grrrl have become the subject of much retrospection and analysis (there are easily a score of scholarly and popular monographs, documentaries, and exhibitions completed or in progress). This retrospective turn, with its subsequent institutionalization of some stories about punk and riot grrrl and not others, has largely failed to center race as a crucial factor—contributing to the invisibility of people of color in punk/do-it-yourself culture. This panel will explore popular zines from writers of color —featuring a wide range of subjects from personal experiences (perzines!) to zines that examine social justice. If you make your own zines, you're invited to bring them to the discussion to share, read from, or swap! Sponsored by the Women's Resources Center, Unit One Allen Hall, LGBT Resource Center, DiversityEd, Bruce D. Nesbitt African American Cultural Center, La Casa Cultural Latina, and the Native American House.

DIY SHOW

7:00 PM-9:30 PM @ UCIMC
202 S. Broadway, Urbana

Zine swap, meet the zine-sters, live music by local bands, and more! Feat. We Must Dismantle All This & others TBA. Sponsored by the UCIMC Radical Librarians.