COLLECTIVE NARRATIVES, RECOLLECTIVE HISTORIES

On April 20 Jason Patterson will introduce a survey of work addressing political histories, cultural locality, documentation and the integrity of personal recollection. The exhibition will include six individual projects completed over the past four years—American Heritage, The Civil Rights Project, New Americans, The Rosenberg Project, Self and Twenty-Three Portraits.

The exhibition will be located at 40 E. University Avenue, on the northeast corner of University Avenue and Market Street in downtown Champaign. A public reception will be held on Friday, April 20 from 6-10pm. Additional hours are listed below. Collective Narratives, Recollective Histories is supported by indi go Artist Co-Op.
