Healing Works

Healing Works will be having a closing reception on September 1st 7pm-10pm.

Healing Works is a collection of art by survivors of sexual violence and their supporters. One feature of this year's event is a consent project aimed at expressing healthy sexuality. A variety of mediums will be represented, from traditional canvas to three-dimensional masks. Some pieces in the exhibit may contain graphic images or words as many artists depict their experiences with sexual violence and the resulting emotions in their work.
