

Precious Knowledge

by Dos Vatos Films

At Tucson High School, ethnic studies programs have improved graduation rates among Latino students. But some state politicians think ethnic studies promote “racial solidarity” and anti-Americanism. When books are banned and the programs eliminated, teachers and students fight back in a modern civil rights struggle.

Thursday, March 7th

Graduate School of Library and Information Science

Rm 126

5-7 pm

Post film discussion led by Asst. Professor Emily Knox

Snacks will be provided

Free and open to the public

Caption: Mexican American/Reza studies students during a Phoenix protest
Credit: Chris Summitt

Co-Sponsors: Graduate School of Library and Information Science, La Casa Cultural Latina, GSLIS Inclusions and Exclusions, GSLIS Connections, Inclusive Illinois
For more information about this event contact Miriam Larson (larson40@illinois.edu) or Amari Ayad (amari3@illinois.edu) Directions & Parking: The Graduate School of Library and Information Science (GSLIS) is located near the corner of 6th and Daniel at 501 E. Daniel.
The accessible entrance is located on the south side of the building.