HELLO STUDENTS.

This fall nearly 8,000 new students will join our campus community. These students will be as eager as you were to explore all that the University of Illinois has to offer. From extra-curricular groups, sports, and Greek life, use this opportunity to recruit new members and keep your organization thriving. As always, the Daily Illini offers Registered Student Organizations a discount on all print advertising.

New Student Edition | July 24, 2013 - $17.90 per column inch 8,000 copies of the New Student Edition will arrive by mail at the homes of incoming freshmen and transfer students in early August. This is your first chance to introduce students to your organization and let them know what you're all about.

Quad Day Edition | August 23, 2013 - $8.95 per column inch 10,000 copies of this edition will be distributed to coincide with one of the University's largest campus events drawing thousands of eager students. Grab their attention, let them know what you do, and how they can get involved!
