

Inaugural Power Moves Luncheon

May 16, 2014

Alice Campbell Alumni Center Ballroom

601 S. Lincoln Ave., Urbana, IL

11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

Tickets: $45

You are cordially invited to attend the inaugural Power Moves Luncheon as we celebrate distinguished Alumni:

- Legacy of Service Award (rendering service in the Chicagoland area that affects attendance and retention of African American students at the University)
Kevin McFall, Past BAN President and Vice President, Johnson Publishing Company
- Arts and Innovation Award (trailblazing efforts in the creative arts)
Charles H. "Chuck" Patterson (posthumously), Director and Actor (known for work on Broadway and role of Jimmy Potter in the movie, The Five Heartbeats)
- Global Footprints Award (impact on global scale)
Chime Asonye, Commissioner of D.C. Commission on African Affairs
- Advancement in Education Award (positively influencing issues affecting the educational path of African American students attending the University)
Dr. Chandra Gill, Founder, Blackademically Speaking
- Golden Trumpet Award (having major impact on issues affecting the trajectory of African Americans' attendance at the University).
Attorney James D. Montgomery, Sr., University of Illinois Trustee

Additionally, your attendance will give you an opportunity to reconnect with fellow Alumni, retrace your steps on campus, support the initiatives of BAN and BNAACC, and welcome the newest UIUC Alumni—the graduating Class of 2014.

To reserve your seat(s) and purchase your ticket(s) for the inaugural event, please register at <https://2014powermovesluncheon.eventbrite.com> no later than Thursday, April 30, 2014. Space is limited, so please purchase your ticket(s) as soon as possible. If you have any questions, please send an email to President@IllinoisBan.org with POWER MOVES LUNCHEON in the subject line.

We look forward to you joining us on May 16 at the luncheon and the Black

Congratulatory Program later that evening!
