Assumption of Risk and Release

You agree that you are voluntarily participating in Makerspace Urbana (hereafter “Makerspace”) with knowledge of the risks of doing so, such as the risks of injury, property damage, or death resulting from the use of potentially dangerous tools or materials, and/or the active or passive negligence of Makerspace, its sponsors and suppliers, their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, and exhibitors (collectively, “we” or “us”).

You release us from all liability, claims, damage, or demands arising from or related to your participation in the Makerspace.

Recordings

You acknowledge that Makerspace events may be recorded in audio, visual, and/or audiovisual media and you consent to the making and use of such recordings by Makerspace and/or its licensees for any purpose. You release Makerspace and its licensees from and waive any claims related to or arising by reason of the making and/or use of any such recordings. You grant to Makerspace the right to use your name and likeness in connection with the use of the recordings.

Acknowledgment

You acknowledge that you have read this Agreement and understand that it includes an assumption of the risk and a release of liability. We are relying on this waiver to allow you to participate in the Makerspace.

Participation

You understand your goal is to define a project and work with other Makerspace and mentors. You agree to use the facilities, tools, and materials in a safe way, and to alert fellow Makerspace, mentors, and/or program leaders when facilities, tools, and materials are being used in a way that could cause harm to themselves or others.

You will do your best to come to all meetings. You will provide others with assistance or helpful feedback when you see a way their project could be improved, if such feedback is welcomed. You agree to tell program leaders changes you’d make to the program to improve future workshops.

That is: I’ll come. I’ll make something. I’ll help others and stay safe.
