ABOUT THE ARTIST

Kousalya Jeganathan, also known by her artist's name earthling, is a filmmaker, visual artist, and poet hailing from Pondicherry, India. As part of Accessible Horizon Films, she writes, edits, and directs short films and documentaries. Most recently, she completed a Tamil feature length film called 500&5 or Aynnoorum Aynnthum, which examines the whereabouts and value placed on a 500 rupee note that changes hands 5 times. She is the author of Reckless Perceptions, a collection of poetry and recently has been exploring acrylic painting.
