

Logistics Officer

Work Schedule: Full Time

Salary: $51,418 – $74,872

Location: Washington, DC metropolitan area

Logistics offers the unique opportunity to work with an accomplished, diverse team, providing a full range of logistical and supply chain management support across the country and overseas. The work includes providing logistical support and managing the overall logistic processes in support of our customers' mission objectives; leveraging existing networks and expanding others; anticipating mission needs and operational requirements and offering alternatives and advice; and evaluating, redesigning and implementing logistics processes for mission support. A career as a logistics officer requires a commitment to serve wherever the mission requires; including worldwide deployment to sometimes harsh and dangerous environments. Throughout your career you must maintain an ongoing readiness to travel and relocate to meet short and long term organizational requirements.

Minimum Requirements: These positions require a five year contract term employment agreement. Contract Term Agreement. Candidates should have a Bachelor's degree from an accredited University in Business Management or Administration, Logistics, Transportation, Industrial Distribution, Industrial Engineering, Supply Chain Management, or seven years relevant work experience in the military or private sector. An emphasis in logistics, transportation or business experience is highly desired.
