

Rally for Troy Davis

Troy Davis is an innocent man on Georgia's death row. Sentenced for a murder he did not commit, convicted on the basis of testimony coerced by the police, Troy is running out of time. Yet the state of Georgia will not free this innocent man. All of Troy's legal options are exhausted. His last hope is international pressure brought onto the Georgia Board of Pardons and Paroles when they meet at his final clemency hearing on September 19th -- 2 days before Troy is to face death. Join the International Day of Action to demand clemency and justice for Troy. Call the Georgia Board of Pardons at 404.656.5651 or e-mail Webmaster@pap.state.ga.us and speak in support of Troy.
