

may. 3rd celebrating pete seeger

This May Day, celebrate Pete Seeger's legacy of social and environmental justice and community-building with events for the whole community.

Happy birthday, Pete!

May 3rd
2014

community
wide celebration

12pm Planting Seeds in our Peace Garden

@ Channing Murray
Foundation/ Red Herring
Plant native seeds together!

2pm Leal Park Teach-In

@ Leal Park, Join us
Under the large Oak Tree for a discussion of the sacredness of Leal Park as Potawatomi
land and honoring Native American
history and present.
ASL interpreter present.

5pm Neighbor
Potluck, Sing, +
Pajama Party

@ Urbana-Champaign
Independent Media Center
Bring a dish to pass, songs, & instruments. Kids: bring your jammies + sleeping bags for kid activities.

Later 3pm May 14th

@ Urbana Free Library
Join us for a screening of PBS
American Masters
Pete Seeger: The Power of Song
*Live music by Paul Kotheimer

All events free and open to the public! Kid-friendly!

These events are made possible by Urbana Champaign Independent Media Center, The Urbana Free Library, The Channing Murray Foundation, Champaign-Urbana Citizens for Peace and Justice, the Native American House, and the Native American Student Organization