

On April 14, 2014, over 200 girls were abducted from their boarding school in Nigeria by a terrorist group, Boko Haram, that may be selling them as brides for $12 each. This is really systematic rape and slavery. The abducted 200+ girls are victims of an ongoing conflict that they did not create, and their voices need to be heard.

Please sign & share the petition. This petition calls on the Nigerian government and all enabled international parties to immediately rescue them.

RALLY WEDNESDAY MAY 7, 2014 ON THE QUAD AT THE UNION
4:30-6:00PM

We, the African Student Organization (ASO) at the University of Illinois, assembled here in Urbana-Champaign are conscious of our responsibilities to the problems facing our continent and demand immediate and swift pressure be brought to Nigeria's government to provide safety and security to its citizens as well as Economic Community of West Africans (ECOWAS), the African Union, United Nations, and other Pan African and international organization to search for the 200+ abducted school girls.

We further assert and proclaim the unity among ourselves and our solidarity to mobilize collectively with Africans and friends in order to realize our common objective. We therefore affirm our dedication to the cause that we have proclaimed.
