AT THE COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

PRESENTS

A PUBLIC LECTURE ON INCARCERATION AND WOMEN

Featuring Susan Burton, A New Way of Life Reentry Project

Susan Burton founded A New Way of Life Reentry Project in 1998 after spending almost 20 years in and out of the criminal justice system. Since then, she has dedicated her life to helping other women break the cycle of incarceration, homelessness, addiction and despair. Susan Burton has earned numerous awards and honors and is widely recognized as a leader in the women's reentry movement. Susan is a co-founder of All of Us or None a national grassroots civil rights movements comprised of formerly incarcerated individuals, their families and community allies.
