National Speaking Tour w/ Gloria La Riva

On the heels of a month-long trip through Venezuela in the midst of growing U.S. aggression, anti-war activist Gloria La Riva will speak in numerous cities on the current situation in Venezuela, with a progressive perspective on the crucial issues facing the Venezuelan people: the U.S. economic sanctions, the U.S. media blockade, and the people's organizing efforts to overcome the aggression. La Riva will show the exclusive first-hand video footage from her trip and answer the questions:

What is the Bolivarian Revolution all about?

Is Venezuela suffering from an economic collapse?

What is the role of the U.S., is the danger of U.S. war near?

How can people in the United States get involved?
